	 The need for providing an option to the customer to accept the change and if not accepted, to exit from the relationship with the bank within the above 30 days without any cost. Banks may consider the option of advertising the changes in newspapers. The need for including the information regarding the changes in any communication sent to the customer. The need for displaying prominently in the notice board as well as the website all the changes effected in the preceding 30 days.
5.	 Other recommendations (i) Deficiencies in the redressal of grievances about service charges Deficient grievance redressal in the banks, including a process of prolonged correspondence, always leads to complaints being escalated to the Banking Ombudsman/Reserve Bank of India. Banks are therefore required to have a robust grievance redressal structure and processes, to ensure prompt in-house redressal of all their customer complaints. (ii) Financial Education The Working Group recommends that full-fledged information on bank products and their implications are to be disclosed to the customers so that the customers can make an informed judgment about their choice of products. 	The recommendations of the Working Group relating to redressal of grievances and financial education, as brought out in column 2, may be implemented by banks.
